Storefront For Community Design Celebrates 10 Year Anniversary

Celebration to Recognizes Ten Impact Stories During First Fridays

Richmond, VA– Storefront for Community Design (SFCD) is hosting a ten-year anniversary party this Friday, May 6 at its headquarters located at 205 E Broad St. The celebration will take place from 5:30 to 9:00 pm in conjunction with First Fridays in Richmond’s Arts District.

In recognition of its ten years of service to the Richmond community, the event will also feature the unveiling of its 10 Years, 10 Stories of Impact Exhibition. Attendees will be able to see how design is able to inspire communities all across Richmond.

“Design has the power to inspire and strengthen communities,” said Shawn Balon Executive Director of Storefront for Community Design. “We’re showcasing the impact we’ve had over the last ten years, while planning for more ways to bring design education and equitable, low-cost design to new areas of the city.”

The event begins at 5:30 with an unveiling of the 10 Years, 10 Stories of Impact Exhibition and will feature food trucks and live music. At 7:00 there will be a celebratory toast for all attendees to join, and free dessert from local businesses. The party continues until 9:00pm with food trucks and music sticking around for the duration. The event is free and open to the public.
